4	Atlantic Islands Centre funding NB gave a report on the meetings that were held with Museums Galleries Scotland and the Heritage Lottery Fund in Edinburgh on 20 th April 2011. He said that MGS were very supportive of the work being carried out by the History Group and would be happy to speak to HLF on their behalf. MGS suggested that the Trust become an Associate Member of MSG at £102 + vat annually. MGS said that community engagement is the way forward for smaller museums and that the LHG should try to obtain original source material where it is possible. They also suggested that the Double your Money sponsorship scheme run by Arts and Business Scotland may be a potential source of funding. NB said that the meetings with Lottery funders had taken place and discussions about funding are still ongoing. Approval was also given for the Trust to apply for Associate Membership of MGS.
